

Strategic Risk Solutions Appoints Director of Bermuda Operations

Hamilton, Bermuda - January 12, 2009 – Strategic Risk Solutions (SRS), a provider of captive management and advisory services today announced the appointment of Andrew Hupman, as Director of its Bermuda operations. Mr. Hupman will be based in Hamilton, Bermuda and will oversee the management of the company’s clients in the domicile. He will also join the company’s healthcare industry practice.

“Andrew has a strong foundation in the management of captives in offshore domiciles and we look forward to having his expertise available to our clients in Bermuda”, said Brady Young, President and CEO of Strategic Risk Solutions. “His healthcare experience will be valuable as we expand our healthcare industry practice beyond Cayman”, added Young.

Mr. Hupman was formerly an Assistant Vice President with Aon Insurance Managers in the Cayman Islands. His clients have included healthcare organizations writing hospital and physician’s professional liability and general liability, as well as single parent and group captives writing primary casualty, property, product liability, warranty & recall programs and credit/life coverages. He started his captive insurance career as a Senior Auditor at KPMG in the Cayman Islands.

Mr. Hupman has a Bachelors of Commerce degree from Dalhousie University in Halifax, Nova Scotia and holds a Chartered Accountant designation.
