

France

A Premier European Captive Domicile

SRS France

France has just completed its first year as a captive domicile and so far, things are looking bright. Last year when the new captive legislation was confirmed, officials and industry experts stated that it was only the beginning and would continue to build out the regulations to make captives an attractive offering in France. According to a recently published article* "France's most notable feature is its equalization provision which resembles the provision offered in Luxembourg." As the leading independent insurance company manager, SRS gained clients in France and with recent acquisitions, is staffed and ready to take on more.
